Dear Parents,

This week's news.....

Christmas Fair – This Saturday, 8th December 12 noon - 3.00 pm

Don't forget we have our Christmas Fair this Saturday!

Come along for lots of Christmas fun and activities!

Lots of games, stalls and other Christmas fun!

Raffle tickets

Also don't forget to return your raffle tickets and stubs to take part in our fabulous raffle – the chance to win £150 plus lots of other prizes!!

Cakes – donations for our cake stall (shop bought or homemade) will be gratefully received on Friday. Thank you

Santa's Grotto Tickets

Requested tickets for Santa's Grotto are coming home tonight, please look out for them.

School Choir

Some members of our School Choir once again enjoyed taking part in the Local Schools' Choir Competition last Friday at St. Mary and St. Nicolas Parish Church, and although this year they were not placed, they all had a lovely morning representing our school in the Competition. Well done to you all!

On Monday some members of the Choir went along to entertain members of the Spalding Blind Club, who greatly enjoyed the children's Christmas entertainment.

Christmas Concert

Our School Choir and Musicians will perform at our Christmas Concert next Wednesday, all requested tickets for the evening are coming home tonight, please look out for them.

Christmas Carol Service

Information about our end of term Carol Service is coming home tonight, as usual due to limited space in the Church we can only offer two tickets per family. Please return ticket requests as soon as possible. Thank you!

Visit from POSH

On Monday morning we had a special visit from some members of Peterborough United and their mascot Peter Burrow! The children really enjoyed the visit and meeting Peter! The visit was part of the Club's Schools Initiative and they talked with the children about all the positive aspects of sport and kindly donated a free ticket for each child, giving free entry for 1 child and 1 adult to selected matches which should have come last night. What out for our school featuring on their website!

HOT SCHOOL LUNCHES

Now the weather has really turned Wintery and cold why not book your child a hot school lunch to fuel them at lunchtime?

Please book meals for our last week, commencing 17th December by midnight tomorrow.
