

Stone Age Food-Man

The scent of grass floated on the air
As Food-man trekked through the forest.
Long green fingers stroked his arms
As Food-man trekked through the forest.
Discarded branches crunched underfoot
As Food-man trekked through the forest.

Juicy, sweet berries hung from the bushes
As Food-man gathered in the forest.
Plucked from their homes, the berries were
As Food-man gathered in the forest.
Purple juice ran down his chin
As Food-man gathered in the forest.

Two eyes watched his every move
As Food-man hunted in the forest.
Mottled brown fur stood on end
As Food-man hunted in the forest.
A gentle breeze carried his scent
As Food-man hunted in the forest.

A weapon was poised – ready to attack
As Food-man hunted in the forest.
An arrow as sharp as a knife flew
As Food-man hunted in the forest.
A startled creature fled
As Food-man left the forest.

Task 1 – Read the poem and look out for any repeated patterns.

Task 2 – Look at the double page from The Stone Age Boy and replace the 1st, 3rd and 5th line from each verse.
